

The Hope of Judgment Pt 2

Romans 2.5-11

1.4.26

<sup>5</sup>But you are stubborn. In your heart you are not sorry for your sins. You are storing up anger against yourself. The day of God's anger is coming. Then his way of judging fairly will be shown. <sup>6</sup>God "will give to each person in keeping with what he has done." <sup>7</sup>God will give eternal life to those who keep on doing good. They want glory, honor, and life that never ends. <sup>8</sup>But there are others who only look out for themselves. They don't accept the truth. They go down an evil path. God will pour out his burning anger on them. <sup>9</sup>There will be trouble and suffering for everyone who does evil. That is meant first for the Jews. It is also meant for the Non-Jews. <sup>10</sup>But there will be glory, honor and peace for everyone who does good. That is meant first for the Jews. It is also meant for the Non-Jews. <sup>11</sup>God treats everyone the same. (NIRV)

Further reflection/discussion

What do you like about this passage?

What questions do you have?

What do we learn about people? God's heart?

What is something you need to ask/trust the Lord to help you to apply based on this passage?

(Specific questions)

What are some words you would use to honestly describe God (what you think He is like)?

Is one of those words you use to describe the Lord, "mean"? If it is, what is it about the Lord that gives you the idea that He is mean?

What do you think the apostle Paul might say to someone who thinks that the Lord is mean?

Are any of the signs of unrepentance present in your life? (i.e. refusing to admit wrong, or to say you are sorry, or ask for forgiveness)

What would you say ARE some signs that the Lord is producing in you a new heart?
