

“Why Life?”
1 Corinthians 15.3-7
4.20.25

For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, that He was buried, that He was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, and that He appeared to Cephas, and then to the Twelve. After that, He appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers and sisters at the same time, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep. Then He appeared to James, then to all the apostles, and last of all He appeared to me also, as to one abnormally born.

What do you like about this passage?

What questions do you have?

What do we learn about people? God's heart?

What is something you need to ask/trust the Lord to help you to apply based on this passage?

-----(Specific questions)-----

What are some of the ways you've experienced the fragility of life?

What are some of the things you do to try and beat back (or delay) death?

What are some ways you may have experienced the "power of indestructible life"?

Some would suggest that the Christian - armed with the promise of eternal life - doesn't need to be afraid of death.
